Exhibition Stands

Making sure your brand attracts attention and stands out in the cluttered environment of a trade show or exhibition is a challenge upon which Eleco thrives.

We create exhibits that not only stand out but also meet your communication objectives. We deliver rich and interactive experiences, as opposed to simply impressive static displays.

As a result, we help maximise brand engagement with your target audience.

Our team of multi-skilled designers, architects and interior specialists plan and build striking exhibition structures of all kinds, from a large hall experience to airport or shopping mall displays.

- stand design & build
- mall activations
- merchandise kiosks
- airport displays
- in-store promotions
- 3D environment design
- interactive data collation
- stand management
